FACULTY

Board of Education

Seated — ELEANOR DARR — recording secretary, JOHN HARTMAN — secretary, J. WILLIAM SHULTZ — president, IRVING SMITH — vice-president, WILLIAM COBER — treasurer. Standing — JOHN LONG, KARL W. BRICK, JEANNINE CUMMINS, RICHARD WEBRECK, KARL HAY.

Mr. Webreck, Mr. Cugini, and Mr. Hay evaluate the progress of the construction program.

"May the wisdom of the Eternal guide you as the sunrise of graduation brings new experiences to your life. For the truly living, education never ceases. The board of education desires that you fully achieve and that you have only the most pleasant happenings following the sunset of your years at BBHS."

- Mr. J. William Shultz

Supervising Principal

"Between the sunrise and sunset of your lives you must make the most of every moment of living. You only pass through this life once. Our objective is to train you and help you to develop so that you are prepared to enjoy your life, to take advantage of the opportunities that present themselves, to accept the successes and failures, to help your fellow man, and to make a worthwhile contribution to society."

- Mr. Walter Atalski

High School Principal

ANTHONY CUGINI, B.A., M.Ed.

"Every era seems, at the time, to be the toughest ever; but while things may be discouraging at times, for the present day young people there has never been an era that offered more opportunities. Opportunity, responsibility, respectability — the field is open. I would encourage all our seniors to go on with educational pursuits if at all possible. You have your foot in the door — push that door open and do your best.

I would like to pass on to you the advice Astronaut Colonel Frank Borman gave some young people recently, "Many uncertainties face today's youth but I would say this to them, be patriotic, respect virtue, do not be afraid to express beliefs in God and maintain a high sense of honesty and pride."

- Mr. Anthony Cugini

SHIRLEY REED, BARBARA GUMBERT High School Secretaries

Grade School Principal

"The initial leadership qualities that are essential to help develop a salutary mind should begin in the elementary school. In essence the elementary school inherently stresses understanding of the social processes as well as the continued reinforcement of the academic requirements."

SENIORS

1971 Class

History

As members of the class of 1971 we recall the many memories and activities of our past high school years. As freshmen we elected Ronald Smith to head our class as president, Wayne Brant as vice-president, William Slifco as secretary, and Guy McQuade as treasurer. Our class party theme was "Kick Off."

When we became sophomores we chose Guy McQuade, Marva Edmiston, Gloria Hillegass, and Karen Coughenour class officers. Beverly Smith was chosen sophomore Homecoming Attendant. Our class party theme was "Our Educational System" highlighted by many comic strip characters. Participating in All-County Band were Marva Edmiston, Frank Ream, Nancy Smith, and Joan Shultz. The sophomore awards were presented to Vicki Groff, and Gloria Hillegass.

During our Junior year we received our class rings and voted for William Slifco, Vicki Groff, Nancy Smith, and Steve Crites as class officers. Gloria Hillegass was chosen as Homecoming Attendant. As our class play we put on "The Baby Sitter." Attending District Chorus were Marva Edmiston and Frank Ream. Frank Ream also attended Region 1 State Chorus. Those students attending All-County Chorus were Marva Edmiston, Joyce Bender, liam Slifco, Vicki Groff, and Marva Edmiston were selected to Scholastic Quiz. Selected as Homecoming Queen was Susan Saylor; her court consisted of Nancy Miller and Gloria Hillegass. We presented "Good Morning, Miss Dove" as our class play. The prom, baccalaureate, and commencement concluded our class history.

Dennis Hay, Bob Lever, Frank Ream, and Joan Shultz. The theme for our class party was the "Age of Aquarius." We finished off our junior year with the excitement of the Junior-Senior Prom centered around the theme "Three Coins in the Fountain." Faith Brant was selected as prom attendant.

In our last and final year we selected William Slifco as president; Beverly Smith, vice-president; Nancy Smith, secretary; Vicki Groff, treasurer; Wil-
